London, December 21.

On Saturday arrived the Mails due from Holland: From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Dec. 22. A Declaration made to the King of Prussia by the Envoy of the Czar of Muscovy.

Sir,

Though the Czar my Master is perswaded your Majesty is intirely convinced of the Sincerity of his Friendship, by the real Proofs of it which he has sought to give on all Occasions, and even lately in the Affair of Stettin; yet his Czarian Majesty has ordered me to repeat the Assurances of his Friendship, and to promise Perseverance therein. 'Tis in the same View, Sir, that his Czarian Majesty would have been very glad to gratify your Majesty's Desire, by sending you the Ratification of the Treaty made between your Majesty and Prince Menzikoff touching the Sequestration of Pomerania. But having considered the said Treaty, and also that which your Majesty has made with the House of Holstein-Gottorp, he finds in it Articles not only opposite to the said Treaty, but likewise so prejudicial to his Interests and those of his High Allies, that 'tis not in his Power to ratify the said Treaty, while those Articles subsist. I flatter my self your Majesty will perceive the Truth of what I have the Honour to represent, when you shall please to reflect on the three following Points.

I. The second Article of the Treaty made between your Majesty and the House of Holstein imports, that the Swedish Garrisons of Stettin and Wismar shall march out to Stralsund and Rugen, and your Majesty even engages to procure them a free Passage. Whereas in the Treaty concluded between your Majesty and Prince Menzikoff, 'tis stipulated that the Garrisons of the Towns above-mentioned shall be transported into Sweden.

II. The 5th Article of the said Treaty made with the Holsteiners says, that your Majesty engages with the Duke-Administrator to cover Stralsund and the Island of Rugen against all the Attacks of Enemies, and to contrive to divert the High Allies of the North from it by proper Methods; and in Case this succeed, to make a Concert capable of securing the said Towns from all Insults of Enemies. On the contrary, the 7th Article of the Treaty made between your Majesty and Prince Menzikoff says, that in case the High Allies of the North should think fit to attack Stralsund by force of Arms, your Majesty promises to grant for that purpose free Passage to their Troops through your Dominions and through Pomerania exterior which is put into your Hands in Sequestration.

III. As to the 8th Article, by which your Majesty obliges your self not only to concur by all manner of ways to the Restitution of the Duke of Holstein to the Dutchy of Holstein and Sleswick, but likewise to procure a Reimbursement of his Damages; your Majesty will of your self consider how much the Czar my Master must have been surprized to see that your Majesty has thought fit to engage in Conditions which cannot but in all respects be prejudicial to the High Allies of the North, and that the only Aim in drawing your Majesty into it is thereby to alter, if possible, a Friendship so well established and so necessary for mutual Interests, as is that between the Czar my Master and your Majesty, it being notorious that there are such close Ties between his Czarian Majesty and his Danish Majesty, the Continuance of which in the present Juncture is so necessary to him, that 'tis impossible for him to abandon the King of Denmark, much less to suffer him to be attacked on this Occasion, unless the Czar my Master would do hurt to himself, the King of Denmark being thereby put out of a Condition to act against our common Enemy. Besides, his Czarian Majesty judges that the Pretensions of the King of Denmark are just and grounded on good Reasons, and that the Duke Administrator can impute to none but himself the Misfortune that has befallen him. Notwithstanding all this, the King of Denmark has shewn very great Moderation in that Affair, and particularly in the last Resolution delivered to Baron Goritz in the last Negotiation which was set on foot at Gottorff.

For the Reasons abovementioned, the Czar my Master has ordered me to desire your Majesty, to be pleased (that so he may be put into a Condition to ratify the Treaty made with Prince Menzikoff) to give me a Declaration in Writing that the abovementioned 3 Points, so opposite to the foresaid Treaty, and so prejudicial to the Interests of my Master and of his High Allies, shall be annulled: Then his Czarian Majesty will not only take a singular Pleasure to ratify the said Treaty, but will likewise seek all Occasions to shew your Majesty what Value he puts on your Friendship, and how dear your Interests are to him.
